Week 29

THINE IS ... THE GLORY

Bible Reading: Revelation 5:9-14

The strongest motivation in a Christian's life should be his or her concern for the glory of God.

The final test of all our work and conduct is this. It will be the test of everything at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

What did Paul say to the Corinthians?

“Whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.” (1 Co 10:31)

Can we write that across our lives? Across our service for Christ? Can we write it across what we have done today? Or what we have read or said?

What about our church activities? Why are we doing what we are doing? Does the shadow of self over-cloud what we do? Are we only wanting others to praise the way we speak, teach, sing or work?

We should recognize what the various church members are doing in the church and our recognition should be an encouragement to them.

Paul encouraged everyone to whom he wrote.

However, there is a fine line drawn beyond which we cannot go in praise or in encouragement. God said it so plainly,

“My glory will I not give unto another.” (Isa 42:8)

“I will not give my glory to another.”

What about our giving? Is it for the glory of God or for the praise of men?

Lastly, what about our praying? Are we asking God for this or for that, simply to make life easier for us? Are we asking for blessing, so as to draw attention to ourselves or our work? “To God be the glory.”

These are the final phrases of this remarkable prayer.

What is actually the very last word we use as we say this prayer? “Amen”. So be it. I agree.

Here is my agreement. We can add too: “This is what I desire - all for the glory of God”.

Our Everyday Acts Of Worship

Everything we do
Is an act of worship
That brings pleasure and delight
When it's done for God
It touches His heart
And is our God-given purpose in life

For God created
Everything that exists
For His glory and His pleasure
And we His children
Have so much worth
More valuable than priceless treasure

For worshipping God
Is truly a lifestyle
Affecting everything we do
It's not just in singing
Spiritual songs
But in our everyday happenings too

As we minister to those
We see in need
Offering to them our service
And even the mundane
Everyday things
To God, they're acts of worship

We need to be offering
As a dedication
Every area of our lives
As an act of spiritual
Worship to God
And a most holy sacrifice

For God cares so much
About every detail
No matter how great or small
For God will walk
In our every day life
As we establish Him as Lord
